

he "Eleventh-Hour" Hurried
Holiday Gifts. Since Choice
Must Be Made Right. What Follow Than That Suggested
of Holiday Remembrances
ly Approved, and on Sale

deal" No. 66

Price $2.00

Bristles (Not Wire)
Rubber Cushion
Department Stores
D., INC., New York

"Onyx"  Hosiery
For Christmas

Sold by leading dealers everywhere

Emery & Beers Company Inc.

Sole Owners of "ONYX" and Wholesale Distributors

A Christmas Thought

MAVIS GIFTS
The Gift Irresistible!

Every breath of the fragrance of Mavis will be a delightful reminder of your thoughtfulness, long after the holiday season is past.

3 ASSORTMENTS
ATTRACTIVELY
BOXED
$1.60
$3.25
$5.00

The easiest gift to give—

Avoid shopping. Avoid shipping. Give something that is distinguished without being expensive. Give 3,000 pages of Entertainment and Inspiration and Education (for instance, there will be fifty to seventy-five short stories and about five complet novels). Give Good Housekeeping.

FREE

A magnificent Christmas card, showing a Jessie Wilcox Smith painting, reproduced in full colors and printed on Japanese vellum, will be sent, bearing your name, to each person for whom you order Good Housekeeping. Just send check or money order for $2.00 for each subscription desired.

Good Housekeeping
$2.00 a year

Dept. A, 119 West 40th Street, New York City.

Watch for this cover of the January issue.
On Sale
December 29,

At Your Newsdealer's
25 Cents
a Copy
$2.00 a Year

Don't Miss Hearst's for 1920!

"The Master of Man," a new novel by Sir Hall Caine! And a new novel by Vicente Blasco Ibañez, author of "The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse!" True ghost stories by Conan Doyle! And short stories by Robert W. Chambers, Arthur Somers Roche and many others! And Hearst's great department—the Book, Play, Art, Science of the Month! Over 25 great features in every issue—nearly twice as many as the ordinary magazine. Ask your newsdealer to reserve your copy every month. Or, better still, tell him to take your subscription for 1920 and SAVE YOU A DOLLAR! If there is no newsdealer in your town, send $2.00 for a year's subscription direct to HEARST'S MAGAZINE, Dept. AW, 119 West 40th Street, N. Y. City

XMAS